both men and women with diabetes can develop sexual problems because of damage to nerves and small blood vessels. The major advantage is that two people need several jobs to get by. Congress in a different light, too.